

Joseph J. Wolk
Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer
Johnson & Johnson

Joseph J. Wolk (Joe) is Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer for Johnson & Johnson. Joe serves as a member of the Company's Executive Committee, plays a strategic role in the overall management of the company, and leads the development and execution of the Company's global long-term financial strategy. Additionally, as a financial steward of Johnson & Johnson, Joe's scope of responsibilities include driving competitive and profitable growth, generating sustainable cash flow, allocating capital to maximize value creation and managing risk across the entire enterprise.

Joe leads the world-wide Finance and Procurement organizations, which comprise approximately 7,500 colleagues around the globe. He assumed the role of Chief Financial officer in July 2018 and has been with Johnson & Johnson for 20 years.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Joe was the Vice President of Investor Relations for Johnson & Johnson. In this role, he developed a winning strategy for building strong relationships with the investment community and disseminating Johnson & Johnson's value creation narrative to all external financial stakeholders. During Joe's tenure in this role, the Investor Relations function was regularly recognized by Institutional Investor as one of the best teams in the industry.

Prior to Investor Relations, Joe held a variety of senior leadership roles in several segments and functions across the Company, where he achieved superior results. He served as Vice President of Finance for the Pharmaceuticals Group, Vice President of Finance for the Medical Devices Global Supply Chain, and Chief Financial Officer of the North America Pharmaceuticals Group.

Joe is an accomplished, Credo-based leader, and is passionate about talent development, driving innovation and community service. He is the Executive Sponsor of Johnson & Johnson's Veterans Leadership Committee, a champion of the Finance Leadership Development Program and a member of the CNBC Global CFO Council.

Joe holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Finance from St. Joseph's University, where he currently serves on the Haub School of Business Board of Visitors, and a Juris Doctor degree from Temple University School of Law. He is also a Certified Public Accountant (CPA).
